

Aula Magna, Scuola Nazionale dell'Amministrazione
 Corso Trieste 2, Caserta
 25/26.03.2019 - ore 09.00

European Economic Constitution: A German-Italian Dialogue for a Solidarity-Oriented Market

Il convegno è organizzato nel quadro del programma DAAD – Dialogue with South Europe 2019 / Hochschuldialog mit Südeuropa ab 2019

25.03.2019

Friedemann Kainer
Private Law as Part of the Economic Constitution: Free Competition as a Method of Interpretation

Camilla Crea
The Ilova Case: Many Herculeases Balancing Human Rights

Martin Schmidt-Kessel
A Balanced Internal Market – Consequences of the Conceptual Shift in Article 3(3) TEU for Consumer Protection Regulation

Stefano Deplano
European Property Law and 'Externalities'

Pasquale Femia
Delocalization and 'Fraus Legi'

Christina Möllnitz
Procurement Laws – An Enforcement Option for (Social) Policy Decisions?

Valeria De Oto
State Aid and Civil Law Theory

Rebecca Schöpfel
Fairness Needs Rules – How Ethical Quality as a Corporate Statement Affects the Consumer and the Market

26.03.2019

Florian Möslein
Private Power in the Digital Economy – Fundamentals, Transformations, and Limitations

Luca Ettore Perriello
Right to Housing and Bank Loan Agreements in Times of Crisis: Insights from the Kušionová Case

Alisa Rank
Implications of (EU) Constitutional Law for the Commercialisation of Personal Data

Assunta di Martino
The Case of 'Hidden City Tickets'. Consumer Behavior and Balance of Contractual Power