Block course
Prof Dr Stephan Balthasar, LL.M.
“International Commercial Law I – International Dispute Resolution”

In December 2017, Prof Dr Stephan Balthasar will be teaching “International Commercial Law – International Dispute Resolution”. The course will cover the legal framework for litigation and arbitration of international commercial disputes, in particular the impact of relevant domestic law, EU Regulations (e.g., Rome I, Rome II, Brussels I) and the New York Arbitration Convention. It also includes practical case studies and mock cases. The course is open to any student interested in international private law and is part of the curriculum for students specialising in International Law (“Schwerpunktbereich I”). For Erasmus-students there will be an option to sit an examination. The course will be taught in English on the following dates:

Tuesday, 12 December 2017
Wednesday, 13 December 2017 and Thursday, 14 December 2017,
from 10 o'clock a.m. to 6 o'clock p.m.,
room 1.81 (RW II)

Bayreuth, 27 September 2017
